

SWISS MEDICAL NETWORK

SWISS MEDICAL NETWORK ONCO DAY

FRIDAY, 31 OCTOBER, 2025

Genolier Innovation Hub

ONCOLOGICAL AND FUTURE PERSPECTIVES

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                  |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------|
| WELCOME AND REGISTRATION                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | 09:00 – 09:30                                    |
| OPENING                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | 09:30 – 09:45                                    |
| Dr Philippe GlassonChairman of the Medical Coordination GroupDeputy Chairman of the Board of DirectorsSwiss Medical Network                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                  |
| Prof Dr Oscar MatzingerProfessor of practice ETH ZürichChief Medical Officer (CMO) Swiss Medical NetworkMedical Director of Radiation OncologyPresident of the Cancer League of Vaud CantonVice-President of the Swiss Society of Radiation Oncology |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                  |
| Dr Matti AaproFMH Specialist in Medical OncologyPresident of SPCC (Sharing Progress in Cancer Care)Member of the UICC BoardFormer President of ECO (European Cancer Organisation)Former President of All.CanClinique de Genolier, Genolier       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                  |
| MORNING SESSION                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                  |
| Moderator:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | Dre Laetitia Lestrade                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                  |
| 09:45 – 10:00[+5 Q&A]                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Diagnostic and theranostic Nuclear Medicine: the basicsDr Antoine LeimgruberFMH Specialist in Nuclear MedicineFMH Specialist in RadiologyMS Physics EPFLClinique de Genolier, Genolier                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                  |
| 10:05 – 10:35[+5 Q&A]                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Theranostics today and tomorrowDre Anne-Laure GiraudetChief Medical OfficerDepartment of radio-ligand therapy (theranostics)Centre Léon Bérard, Lyon                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                  |
| Moderators:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Prof Dr Olivier Michielin & Dre Edya Fuhrmann    |
| 10:40 – 11:00[+5 Q&A]                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Sequential use of ADCs:what data do we have and what do we need?Dre Emanuela FerraroMedical OncologistAttending PhysicianEarly Drug Development DepartmentEuropean Institute of Oncology, Milan, Italy                                                                                                                                                    |                                                  |
| 11:05 – 11:25[+5 Q&A]                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Where are we with liquid biopsies today for (breast) cancer?(via Teams)Prof Dr Holger MochDirector of the Institute, Department of Pathology and Molecular Pathology, USZ, Zurich                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                  |
| BREAK                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | 11:30 – 11:45                                    |
| 11:45 – 12:00[+5 Q&A]                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Global aspects and future of liquid biopsyThomas McKeeDirector of Molecular PathologyDoctor of MedicineFMH Specialist in Pathology & Molecular PathologyAurigen Centre de Pathologie, Sonic Suisse                                                                                                                                                             |                                                  |
| 12:05 – 12:20[+5 Q&A]                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Developing a Phase I Clinical Research Unit:Lessons from Cancer VaccinesProf Dre Lana E. KandalaftChief of Clinical and Translational ResearchSwiss Medical Network                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                  |
| 12:25 – 12:35[+5 Q&A]                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Development of theranostics in phase I: the CLB exampleDre Anne-Laure GiraudetChief Medical OfficerDepartment of radio-ligand therapy (theranostics)Centre Léon Bérard, Lyon                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                  |
| LUNCH & TOUR OF THE GENOLIER INNOVATION HUB                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | 12:40 – 14:00                                    |
| AFTERNOON SESSION                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                  |
| Moderator:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Prof Dr Oscar Matzinger – Special session        |
| 14:00 – 14:15[+5 Q&A]                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Radiosurgery and benign lesions:70 years of practice, between history and perspectivesProf Dr Constantin TuleascaAssociate Professor of Neurosurgery in RomaniaFMH Specialist in NeurosurgeryClinique de Montchoisi, Lausanne                                                                                                                                 |                                                  |
| Moderator:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Dre Magdalena Kohlik – Surgical session          |
| 14:20 – 15:15[+10 Q&A]                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | The Axilla. Standards, news, trials, and interactive case discussionProf Dr Michael GnantProfessor of Surgery, University of ViennaPresident Austrian Breast and Colorectal Cancer Study Group (ABCSG)Dre Maria Joao CardosoHead Breast Surgeon, Champalimaud Foundation Breast Unit, Lisbon, PortugalAssociate Professor, University of Lisbon |                                                  |
| 15:25 – 15:40[+5 Q&A]                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Lymphedema: what possible surgical solutions?Prof Dr Pietro Di SummaFMH Specialist in plastic, reconstructive and aesthetic surgeryClinique de Genolier, Genolier                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                  |
| BREAK                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | 15:45 – 16:00                                    |
| Moderator:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Prof Dr Oscar Matzinger – Radio-oncology session |
| 16:00 – 16:20[+5 Q&A]                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | What adjuvant Radiotherapy for breast cancer?Prof Dr Philip PoortmansRadiation OncologistIridium Network and University of Antwerp, Belgium                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                  |
| 16:25 – 16:45[+5 Q&A]                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Sharper than a scalpel:the radiosurgical revolution in tackling brain metastasesDre Francesca CaparrottiSpecialist in Radio-OncologyClinique de Genolier, Genolier                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                  |
| CONCLUSION                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | 16:50 – 17:00                                    |
| Prof Dr Oscar MatzingerProfessor of practice ETH ZürichChief Medical Officer (CMO) Swiss Medical NetworkMedical Director of Radiation OncologyPresident of the Cancer League of Vaud CantonVice-President of the Swiss Society of Radiation Oncology |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                  |
| Dr Matti AaproFMH Specialist in Medical OncologyPresident of SPCC (Sharing Progress in Cancer Care)Member of the UICC BoardFormer President of ECO (European Cancer Organisation)Former President of All.CanClinique de Genolier, Genolier       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                  |

CREDITS

---

Société Suisse de Neurochirurgie (SSNC): 1

Société Suisse de Médecine Interne Générale (SGAIM SSMIG SSGIM): 4

Société Suisse de Médecine Nucléaire (SGNM SSMN): 5

Société Suisse de Radio-Oncologie (SRO SSRO): 6

WITH THE SUPPORT OF

---

SWISS MEDICAL NETWORK
ONCO DAY
FRIDAY, 31 OCTOBER, 2025

Swiss Medical Network
Route du Muids 3, CH-1272 Genolier
www.swissmedical.net